As we celebrate this holiday season, I would like to take this opportunity to celebrate each of you! Thank you for making the North American Reciprocal Museum (NARM) Association the biggest and best reciprocal membership program in the world!

Your feedback throughout the year has been much appreciated and very helpful. Please continue to share your comments and new ideas with me as we work to build an even better organization. Suggestions for additional benefits, marketing ideas or anything else that you think might help spread the word about NARM or help you promote your higher level memberships are welcome.

NARM has built a strong presence on Facebook, has just launched it's new Pinterest boards (please send your institution's best photo to pin to the 'Member Institutions' board) and will begin promotions on LinkedIn in the coming year.

Watch for even greater things for NARM in 2014!

Happy Holidays!

Virginia
