Listed are North American reciprocal museum membership agreements. A reciprocal membership generally provides free or discounted entry to participating museums, sometimes also including member benefits such as discounts in the gift shop or with members-only events. This list is updated quarterly in mid-December, mid-March, mid-June, and mid-September even though updates to the roster of NARM membership agreements occur more frequently. For the most current information on which museums accept NARM membership, please check with participating institutions.

Institutions listed below are reciprocal members that are entitled to the NARM NARM membership agreements. This list is updated quarterly and is to be used for general information on reciprocal membership agreements. For the most current information on which museums accept NARM membership, please check with participating institutions.

Guests are not included unless they present a current membership card validated with an accepted NARM membership ID.

Note: Some museums restrict benefits. Please see the end notes at the bottom for more information. ‘Family’ benefits are defined by each participating institution.

It is always advisable to contact the institution prior to visit to confirm the reciprocal benefits available and avoid any confusion. For questions about the North American Reciprocal Program please contact your local institutions membership department.
